

ON THE BASE BALL FIELD.

THE CLUES OF OUR TWO SISTERS.

Brooklyn the scene of the Great Game—One Victory for Each City—How the Other Games Went—Notes.

The result of the championship games yesterday was as follows: THE NATIONAL LEAGUE. Brooklyn, 7; New York, 3.

Philadelphia, 3; Boston, 0. Cleveland, 3; Pittsburgh, 3.

THE PLAYERS' LEAGUE. New York, 13; Brooklyn, 4.

Pittsburgh, 6; Buffalo, 2. Philadelphia, 3; Boston, 0.

THE AMERICAN ASSOCIATION. Brooklyn, 5; Syracuse, 4.

Rochester, 12; Athletic, 2. St. Louis, 10; Louisville, 6.

Toledo, 7; Columbus, 4. Jersey City, 10; Worcester, 6.

Newark, 10; Baltimore, 6. New Haven, 7; Hartford, 4.

Washington, 11; Wilmington, 2.

THE RECORD. Club, Won, Lost, P.C., Choke, Won, Lost, P.C.

Philadelphia, 3; Boston, 0. Cincinnati, 4; Cleveland, 3.

Brooklyn, 7; New York, 3. It was a beautiful day yesterday for base ball.

The sun shone brilliantly, and it helped to bring out thousands of the lovers of the great national game.

Especially was this true at Washington Park, Brooklyn. It was the first contest between the New York and Brooklyn (N. Y.) Clubs.

The great rivalry that exists between the metropolis and the city across the bridge manifested itself, and the swarm of people who went to Washington Park looked for a game for blood.

And it was a game for blood, too. Manager Mutrie decided that for once he would show himself to "the people" as a manager, and he consequently took a seat on the bench with his players.

He pulled his moustache as of yore at the most trying times, hoping against hope for the base hits that never came.

President Byrne was jubilant, not so much because his team won, but on account of the large attendance. "Why," he said, "this is the finest crowd we have had on these grounds in many a month, and at an increased price of admission.

Could anything be more significant as to how the people in Brooklyn look upon us?" In fact, Mr. Byrne may well have felt proud, for the turnstiles showed that 3,774 persons were on the grounds.

The game was a splendid one. Nobody had any fault to find with it. Many thought it would be a good chance to compare the showing of the New Yorks made with that made by last year's team.

The fact is, no comparison could be made with any degree of accuracy, for Brooklyn did not have out its strongest team, neither did Manager Mutrie. Still the Brooklynians are in much better condition than they were last fall.

Caruthers is in magnificent form, and he did better work than he has done in any of his previous seasons.

The New Yorks put up a splendid game. Everybody played as if the result of the game depended upon his individual efforts.

One noticeable feature was the fact that when the New Yorks take the field, they go on the trot. They act as if they are thoroughly alive and wanted the people to see their money's worth.

They not only occupied the base, but they hit, and the Brooklyn hit him rather hard. He struck out twice when each time a hit meant a run.

Umpire Powers was severe on Welch, who struck out on a bunt. He was not only severe on Welch, but he was also severe on Caruthers, who struck out on a bunt.

Umpire Powers was severe on Welch, who struck out on a bunt. He was not only severe on Welch, but he was also severe on Caruthers, who struck out on a bunt.

Umpire Powers was severe on Welch, who struck out on a bunt. He was not only severe on Welch, but he was also severe on Caruthers, who struck out on a bunt.

Umpire Powers was severe on Welch, who struck out on a bunt. He was not only severe on Welch, but he was also severe on Caruthers, who struck out on a bunt.

THE PLAYERS' LEAGUE.

NEW YORK (N. Y.), 13; BROOKLYN (N. Y.), 4.

Philadelphia, 3; Boston, 0. Cleveland, 3; Pittsburgh, 3.

THE PLAYERS' LEAGUE. New York, 13; Brooklyn, 4.

Pittsburgh, 6; Buffalo, 2. Philadelphia, 3; Boston, 0.

THE AMERICAN ASSOCIATION. Brooklyn, 5; Syracuse, 4.

Rochester, 12; Athletic, 2. St. Louis, 10; Louisville, 6.

Toledo, 7; Columbus, 4. Jersey City, 10; Worcester, 6.

Newark, 10; Baltimore, 6. New Haven, 7; Hartford, 4.

Washington, 11; Wilmington, 2.

THE RECORD. Club, Won, Lost, P.C., Choke, Won, Lost, P.C.

Philadelphia, 3; Boston, 0. Cincinnati, 4; Cleveland, 3.

Brooklyn, 7; New York, 3. It was a beautiful day yesterday for base ball.

The sun shone brilliantly, and it helped to bring out thousands of the lovers of the great national game.

Especially was this true at Washington Park, Brooklyn. It was the first contest between the New York and Brooklyn (N. Y.) Clubs.

The great rivalry that exists between the metropolis and the city across the bridge manifested itself, and the swarm of people who went to Washington Park looked for a game for blood.

And it was a game for blood, too. Manager Mutrie decided that for once he would show himself to "the people" as a manager, and he consequently took a seat on the bench with his players.

He pulled his moustache as of yore at the most trying times, hoping against hope for the base hits that never came.

President Byrne was jubilant, not so much because his team won, but on account of the large attendance. "Why," he said, "this is the finest crowd we have had on these grounds in many a month, and at an increased price of admission.

Could anything be more significant as to how the people in Brooklyn look upon us?" In fact, Mr. Byrne may well have felt proud, for the turnstiles showed that 3,774 persons were on the grounds.

The game was a splendid one. Nobody had any fault to find with it. Many thought it would be a good chance to compare the showing of the New Yorks made with that made by last year's team.

The fact is, no comparison could be made with any degree of accuracy, for Brooklyn did not have out its strongest team, neither did Manager Mutrie. Still the Brooklynians are in much better condition than they were last fall.

Caruthers is in magnificent form, and he did better work than he has done in any of his previous seasons.

The New Yorks put up a splendid game. Everybody played as if the result of the game depended upon his individual efforts.

One noticeable feature was the fact that when the New Yorks take the field, they go on the trot. They act as if they are thoroughly alive and wanted the people to see their money's worth.

They not only occupied the base, but they hit, and the Brooklyn hit him rather hard. He struck out twice when each time a hit meant a run.

Umpire Powers was severe on Welch, who struck out on a bunt. He was not only severe on Welch, but he was also severe on Caruthers, who struck out on a bunt.

Umpire Powers was severe on Welch, who struck out on a bunt. He was not only severe on Welch, but he was also severe on Caruthers, who struck out on a bunt.

Umpire Powers was severe on Welch, who struck out on a bunt. He was not only severe on Welch, but he was also severe on Caruthers, who struck out on a bunt.

Umpire Powers was severe on Welch, who struck out on a bunt. He was not only severe on Welch, but he was also severe on Caruthers, who struck out on a bunt.

Umpire Powers was severe on Welch, who struck out on a bunt. He was not only severe on Welch, but he was also severe on Caruthers, who struck out on a bunt.

Umpire Powers was severe on Welch, who struck out on a bunt. He was not only severe on Welch, but he was also severe on Caruthers, who struck out on a bunt.

THE PLAYERS' LEAGUE.

NEW YORK (N. Y.), 13; BROOKLYN (N. Y.), 4.

Philadelphia, 3; Boston, 0. Cleveland, 3; Pittsburgh, 3.

THE PLAYERS' LEAGUE. New York, 13; Brooklyn, 4.

Pittsburgh, 6; Buffalo, 2. Philadelphia, 3; Boston, 0.

THE AMERICAN ASSOCIATION. Brooklyn, 5; Syracuse, 4.

Rochester, 12; Athletic, 2. St. Louis, 10; Louisville, 6.

Toledo, 7; Columbus, 4. Jersey City, 10; Worcester, 6.

Newark, 10; Baltimore, 6. New Haven, 7; Hartford, 4.

Washington, 11; Wilmington, 2.

THE RECORD. Club, Won, Lost, P.C., Choke, Won, Lost, P.C.

Philadelphia, 3; Boston, 0. Cincinnati, 4; Cleveland, 3.

Brooklyn, 7; New York, 3. It was a beautiful day yesterday for base ball.

The sun shone brilliantly, and it helped to bring out thousands of the lovers of the great national game.

Especially was this true at Washington Park, Brooklyn. It was the first contest between the New York and Brooklyn (N. Y.) Clubs.

The great rivalry that exists between the metropolis and the city across the bridge manifested itself, and the swarm of people who went to Washington Park looked for a game for blood.

And it was a game for blood, too. Manager Mutrie decided that for once he would show himself to "the people" as a manager, and he consequently took a seat on the bench with his players.

He pulled his moustache as of yore at the most trying times, hoping against hope for the base hits that never came.

President Byrne was jubilant, not so much because his team won, but on account of the large attendance. "Why," he said, "this is the finest crowd we have had on these grounds in many a month, and at an increased price of admission.

Could anything be more significant as to how the people in Brooklyn look upon us?" In fact, Mr. Byrne may well have felt proud, for the turnstiles showed that 3,774 persons were on the grounds.

The game was a splendid one. Nobody had any fault to find with it. Many thought it would be a good chance to compare the showing of the New Yorks made with that made by last year's team.

The fact is, no comparison could be made with any degree of accuracy, for Brooklyn did not have out its strongest team, neither did Manager Mutrie. Still the Brooklynians are in much better condition than they were last fall.

Caruthers is in magnificent form, and he did better work than he has done in any of his previous seasons.

The New Yorks put up a splendid game. Everybody played as if the result of the game depended upon his individual efforts.

One noticeable feature was the fact that when the New Yorks take the field, they go on the trot. They act as if they are thoroughly alive and wanted the people to see their money's worth.

They not only occupied the base, but they hit, and the Brooklyn hit him rather hard. He struck out twice when each time a hit meant a run.

Umpire Powers was severe on Welch, who struck out on a bunt. He was not only severe on Welch, but he was also severe on Caruthers, who struck out on a bunt.

Umpire Powers was severe on Welch, who struck out on a bunt. He was not only severe on Welch, but he was also severe on Caruthers, who struck out on a bunt.

Umpire Powers was severe on Welch, who struck out on a bunt. He was not only severe on Welch, but he was also severe on Caruthers, who struck out on a bunt.

Umpire Powers was severe on Welch, who struck out on a bunt. He was not only severe on Welch, but he was also severe on Caruthers, who struck out on a bunt.

Umpire Powers was severe on Welch, who struck out on a bunt. He was not only severe on Welch, but he was also severe on Caruthers, who struck out on a bunt.

Umpire Powers was severe on Welch, who struck out on a bunt. He was not only severe on Welch, but he was also severe on Caruthers, who struck out on a bunt.

THE PLAYERS' LEAGUE.

NEW YORK (N. Y.), 13; BROOKLYN (N. Y.), 4.

Philadelphia, 3; Boston, 0. Cleveland, 3; Pittsburgh, 3.

THE PLAYERS' LEAGUE. New York, 13; Brooklyn, 4.

Pittsburgh, 6; Buffalo, 2. Philadelphia, 3; Boston, 0.

THE AMERICAN ASSOCIATION. Brooklyn, 5; Syracuse, 4.

Rochester, 12; Athletic, 2. St. Louis, 10; Louisville, 6.

Toledo, 7; Columbus, 4. Jersey City, 10; Worcester, 6.

Newark, 10; Baltimore, 6. New Haven, 7; Hartford, 4.

Washington, 11; Wilmington, 2.

THE RECORD. Club, Won, Lost, P.C., Choke, Won, Lost, P.C.

Philadelphia, 3; Boston, 0. Cincinnati, 4; Cleveland, 3.

Brooklyn, 7; New York, 3. It was a beautiful day yesterday for base ball.

The sun shone brilliantly, and it helped to bring out thousands of the lovers of the great national game.

Especially was this true at Washington Park, Brooklyn. It was the first contest between the New York and Brooklyn (N. Y.) Clubs.

The great rivalry that exists between the metropolis and the city across the bridge manifested itself, and the swarm of people who went to Washington Park looked for a game for blood.

And it was a game for blood, too. Manager Mutrie decided that for once he would show himself to "the people" as a manager, and he consequently took a seat on the bench with his players.

He pulled his moustache as of yore at the most trying times, hoping against hope for the base hits that never came.

President Byrne was jubilant, not so much because his team won, but on account of the large attendance. "Why," he said, "this is the finest crowd we have had on these grounds in many a month, and at an increased price of admission.

Could anything be more significant as to how the people in Brooklyn look upon us?" In fact, Mr. Byrne may well have felt proud, for the turnstiles showed that 3,774 persons were on the grounds.

The game was a splendid one. Nobody had any fault to find with it. Many thought it would be a good chance to compare the showing of the New Yorks made with that made by last year's team.

The fact is, no comparison could be made with any degree of accuracy, for Brooklyn did not have out its strongest team, neither did Manager Mutrie. Still the Brooklynians are in much better condition than they were last fall.

Caruthers is in magnificent form, and he did better work than he has done in any of his previous seasons.

The New Yorks put up a splendid game. Everybody played as if the result of the game depended upon his individual efforts.

One noticeable feature was the fact that when the New Yorks take the field, they go on the trot. They act as if they are thoroughly alive and wanted the people to see their money's worth.

They not only occupied the base, but they hit, and the Brooklyn hit him rather hard. He struck out twice when each time a hit meant a run.

Umpire Powers was severe on Welch, who struck out on a bunt. He was not only severe on Welch, but he was also severe on Caruthers, who struck out on a bunt.

Umpire Powers was severe on Welch, who struck out on a bunt. He was not only severe on Welch, but he was also severe on Caruthers, who struck out on a bunt.

Umpire Powers was severe on Welch, who struck out on a bunt. He was not only severe on Welch, but he was also severe on Caruthers, who struck out on a bunt.

Umpire Powers was severe on Welch, who struck out on a bunt. He was not only severe on Welch, but he was also severe on Caruthers, who struck out on a bunt.

Umpire Powers was severe on Welch, who struck out on a bunt. He was not only severe on Welch, but he was also severe on Caruthers, who struck out on a bunt.

Umpire Powers was severe on Welch, who struck out on a bunt. He was not only severe on Welch, but he was also severe on Caruthers, who struck out on a bunt.

THE PRESIDENT IN NEW YORK.

THE SICK RECEIVING MEDICAL DEPARTMENT.

The President of the European and American staff of physicians and surgeons (composed of German, English, Scandinavian, and American doctors) in New York City at 85 East 10th street.

charge until the evening of May 10. The object is to become rapidly and personally acquainted with the sick, and afflicted individuals will not take offense if they are rejected as incurable.

A special invitation to any one suffering from disease pronounced incurable. It matters not what your disease may be, come and be examined. If you are incurable they will advise you.

Office Hours: 10 to 12 A. M., 3 till 6 P. M., Sundays, 10 A. M. to 4 P. M.

SPORTS ON THE WATER.

The Bradford and Atlanta Regatta to New York City.

The Bradford Boat Club of Boston a few weeks ago challenged the Atlanta Boat Club's challenge to a regatta race, to which challenge the Atlanta regatta was accepted.

The regatta was to take place on June 1, and if the crew entered it would keep other crews from entering the race as they knew they would stand no chance of winning with the Bradford crew.

The regatta was to take place on June 1, and if the crew entered it would keep other crews from entering the race as they knew they would stand no chance of winning with the Bradford crew.

The regatta was to take place on June 1, and if the crew entered it would keep other crews from entering the race as they knew they would stand no chance of winning with the Bradford crew.

The regatta was to take place on June 1, and if the crew entered it would keep other crews from entering the race as they knew they would stand no chance of winning with the Bradford crew.

The regatta was to take place on June 1, and if the crew entered it would keep other crews from entering the race as they knew they would stand no chance of winning with the Bradford crew.

The regatta was to take place on June 1, and if the crew entered it would keep other crews from entering the race as they knew they would stand no chance of winning with the Bradford crew.

The regatta was to take place on June 1, and if the crew entered it would keep other crews from entering the race as they knew they would stand no chance of winning with the Bradford crew.

The regatta was to take place on June 1, and if the crew entered it would keep other crews from entering the race as they knew they would stand no chance of winning with the Bradford crew.

The regatta was to take place on June 1, and if the crew entered it would keep other crews from entering the race as they knew they would stand no chance of winning with the Bradford crew.

The regatta was to take place on June 1, and if the crew entered it would keep other crews from entering the race as they knew they would stand no chance of winning with the Bradford crew.

The regatta was to take place on June 1, and if the crew entered it would keep other crews from entering the race as they knew they would stand no chance of winning with the Bradford crew.

The regatta was to take place on June 1, and if the crew entered it would keep other crews from entering the race as they knew they would stand no chance of winning with the Bradford crew.

The regatta was to take place on June 1, and if the crew entered it would keep other crews from entering the race as they knew they would stand no chance of winning with the Bradford crew.

The regatta was to take place on June 1, and if the crew entered it would keep other crews from entering the race as they knew they would stand no chance of winning with the Bradford crew.

The regatta was to take place on June 1, and if the crew entered it would keep other crews from entering the race as they knew they would stand no chance of winning with the Bradford crew.

The regatta was to take place on June 1, and if the crew entered it would keep other crews from entering the race as they knew they would stand no chance of winning with the Bradford crew.

The regatta was to take place on June 1, and if the crew entered it would keep other crews from entering the race as they knew they would stand no chance of winning with the Bradford crew.

The regatta was to take place on June 1, and if the crew entered it would keep other crews from entering the race as they knew they would stand no chance of winning with the Bradford crew.

The regatta was to take place on June 1, and if the crew entered it would keep other crews from entering the race as they knew they would stand no chance of winning with the Bradford crew.

The regatta was to take place on June 1, and if the crew entered it would keep other crews from entering the race as they knew they would stand no chance of winning with the Bradford crew.

The regatta was to take place on June 1, and if the crew entered it would keep other crews from entering the race as they knew they would stand no chance of winning with the Bradford crew.

The regatta was to take place on June 1, and if the crew entered it would keep other crews from entering the race as they knew they would stand no chance of winning with the Bradford crew.

The regatta was to take place on June 1, and if the crew entered it would keep other crews from entering the race as they knew they would stand no chance of winning with the Bradford crew.

RACINE WAGON AND CARRIAGE CO.

BUSINESS WAGON DEPARTMENT.

30 Dry Goods, 20 Laundry, 15 Heavy Delivery, 20 Fancy Delivery, for all lines of trade.

Special Line Light Delivery Wagons for country use.

FLANDRAU & CO. Van Tassel & Kearney's Carriage Repository.

ALL KNOWN ASSORTMENT of all the new styles of all the best quality of harnesses.

LANDAU'S GLASS FRONT AND LEATHER HEADS.

ROCKAWAYS, HICK-PARSONS AND EXTENSION FRONTS.

VICTORIAS, LANDAU'S AND MAIL PHAETONS.

THE LARGEST AND FINEST STOCK OF HARNESS, SADDLERY, COLLARS, BRIDLES, WHIPS, FURS AND CLOTH.

At Auction, H. G. Stevens, Auctioneer.

REGULAR WEEKLY SALE, AMERICAN HORSE EXCHANGE, LIMITED.

PROPERTY OF MR. HERMANN REICHEL.

PROPERTY OF MR. EIGHTON L. WHITPOND, JR.

PROPERTY OF A LADY SELLING OUT.

PROPERTY OF MR. HERMANN REICHEL.

PROPERTY OF MR. EIGHTON L. WHITPOND, JR.

PROPERTY OF A LADY SELLING OUT.

PROPERTY OF MR. HERMANN REICHEL.

PROPERTY OF MR. EIGHTON L. WHITPOND, JR.

PROPERTY OF A LADY SELLING OUT.

PROPERTY OF MR. HERMANN REICHEL.

PROPERTY OF MR. EIGHTON L. WHITPOND, JR.

PROPERTY OF A LADY SELLING OUT.

PROPERTY OF MR. HERMANN REICHEL.

PROPERTY OF MR. EIGHTON L. WHITPOND, JR.

PROPERTY OF A LADY SELLING OUT.

PROPERTY OF MR. HERMANN REICHEL.

PROPERTY OF MR. EIGHTON L. WHITPOND, JR.

PROPERTY OF A LADY SELLING OUT.

PROPERTY OF MR. HERMANN REICHEL.

PROPERTY OF MR. EIGHTON L. WHITPOND, JR.